

NIL Awards 2022

Welcome everybody to the inaugural Nil Summit and Nil Awards My name is Jason Belzer and I am the co founder and CEO of student athlete Nil I'm joined today by my good friend and colleague Jim Cava the founder of influencer We are elated to have you with us tonight This evening is years in the making 20 years ago Jim and I were student athletes like you guys in the room tonight And we long thought about a day when student athletes would have an opportunity to make the most of their time in college sports and leverage their name image and likeness 2.5 years ago when we realized that that day would soon come We began to plan this evening It took thousands of hours and we have hundreds of people that have worked on this event including more than 30 brand partners who are seated here today and this would not be possible without them So please give a round of applause for everybody that is involved in this event I'm gonna hand it over to my partner Jim to say a few words about what this means and the opportunity that stands in front of you over the next three days Thanks a lot Jason You know as I look around right now it's kind of surreal for us an influencer We started in 2017 We knew Nil was not a matter of if but when I think the o'bannon case and other happenings legally showed us the road map that it was going to happen but nobody knew exactly when And so we just wanted to start helping athletes with their social media help you build your brand right Help you make the most of the time when you're playing at the school you're playing for and use that stage to set the stage for the rest of your lives And as we did that and as NIL unfolded we've been able to get more involved with all the things you're doing now to make money But the one big thing that I think is great about nil is not just how much money you're gonna make it's getting you to work a muscle a muscle that a lot of student athletes don't work until they're done playing the same muscle Your coaches come to you and say hey we're going to bring a bunch of influential alums in the room We want you to shake their hands and meet them These are people that could give you opportunities with your career But a lot of times athletes let that pass by nil is creating initiative takers And while now 500,000 athletes can make money with their nil There's only 300 in this room You're the massive initiative takers that are at the first ever nil summit And I can tell you with the work that Jason and Sunil and their team have done this This is gonna grow but you're at the first one And so I want to encourage you go up to your peers introduce yourself trade contact information There's a lot of brands

here go up to those brands get to know them understand how they're participating in NIL There's a lot of media here Media that's used to having to go through an S ID or somebody else to get to you and hear your perspective on NIL We've heard a lot from everybody else about NIL We haven't heard a lot from student athletes talk to the media members here from Sports Illustrated from the Associated Press and others Get to know them make the most of this because these 48 hours they're gonna fly by And I hope that ultimately you'll leave with new contacts new learnings and a lot of other ammunition to have a great year ahead with NIL And we just can't wait for tonight because we're going to celebrate the stars from year number one So Jason do you want to introduce our hosts Yes So I'd like to introduce our host for the evening The illustrious Darren Ravell and Charlie I feel like morning up everyone I've been waiting all night to say that I would say a TL but I have no credibility to say that I'm not gonna say but it is so hot that my sweat got an NIL deal So thank you to for that Also What is that You're drinking Darren Um This is Celsius It's the sponsor of the really good so delicious I already drank my can trying to get her own deal Of course we are all trying to get our own deals which is why we are all in such big support of NIL And obviously you all realize the importance behind this movement I know for myself as a host for ESPN I regularly work with professional athletes who have amazing brand opportunities partnerships endorsement deals but I look around the room and I'm seeing lots of student athletes who have just as many eyeballs on them and just as much exposure as some of these professional athletes that I work with And it's like why shouldn't you be given that exact same opportunity I mean not only is it a great way to build your portfolio financially but also to brand yourselves I mean who knows what direction you're ultimately going to go in So now is the time to start building your brand and then you are set by the time that you're able to make that next pivot point in your life So I'm so excited It is here and I wish it I wish it was in effect when I was in college Yeah But you weren't an athlete So it's true If you've seen some of my videos though My 40 is the most watched 40 of all time Usain Bolts You know for me it's kind of surreal being here because you know I've been covering sports business for 21 years and I remember my first interview talking about what became name image and likeness with Carmelo Anthony after Syracuse won the championship in 2003 And I asked him if he thought that it was a little weird that there were 15 Syracuse Jerseys number 15 Syracuse Jerseys And they'd be walking around on campus people walking around with them and he didn't get a piece and he was bold enough to say we should get a piece which then led to Tim Tebow And over time even though the NC A might have not been that helpful over time we finally got here So it's it's amazing I feel kind of old having covered 20 years of what seemed to be not a lot of progress but we're here because of that So yeah absolutely So with that being said we have a lot of very special student athletes that we'd like to recognize this evening So let's get our award ceremony underway Shall we Let's go y'all ready Ok Ok We begin this evening with the innovator of the Year award that is presented to you by Invest Qqq This award recognizes the student athlete that best exemplified innovation and creativity through novel usage of their name image and likeness to generate tremendous value for their partners and or themselves So let's welcome UG A softball player Jaden Fields and Anna Paglia of Invest QQQ Hi everyone What a night Wow Look at the room I'm sure you know you guys are making history tonight You are the first you are the pioneers You are paving the way for more to come So good job I am so honored to be here in in a hometown of Atlanta at Invest 22 We believe that the innovation comes from anywhere and anyone Oh I I am so so touched and impressed at the passion and at the creativity of all of these athletes and the way they have used their brand their name their image their likeness So without further ado here are the nominees for Innovator of the year Lea Clapper University of Florida Gymnast She created the first gymnastic board game on the market called Balance Palace Rao Kazai Southern Methodist Football player is nationally known for his art galleries which express his passion for addressing social justice issues Will Marshall University football player he's an old school country music singer and songwriter that regularly plays live shows Chloe Mitchell a why not college volleyball player She became talk famous by making do it yourself videos Mitchell also launched their own nil farm called the playbook that aims to connect athletes and friends How amazing is that Gary and Mackenzie Milton Miami quarterback and Florida State quarterback They have to create the nationally known nil marketplace dream field A gymnast who has inked many nir deals this past year including a black girl magic and F and has a partnership with where she designed her own named the Queen Leo And the innovator of the year award goes to Chloe Mitchell a college Oh my goodness I told myself if I won this I wasn't gonna cry because Sedona Prince is somewhere in here and I can't cry in front of her But I just I'm shocked I'm a 20 year old young female businesswoman and I'm sitting in a room full of such esteemed athletes and many of whom are signed up on playbooks the company that my dad and I founded and I just want to say thank you for being a part of that journey and allowing us to be part of your stories and you all look really good tonight So thank you very much Right I always have a dream that the Steve Harvey thing happens to me So I'm really glad that I don't have any envelope to open up and say the winner is uh but the next award is the best social media campaign I am very fond of social media I was born on June 30th which retroactively became a social media day I don't think that was an accident Maybe it was our next category best social media campaign This award recognizes the most exceptional nil marketing campaign activated over one of more one or more social media platforms judges considered social engagement fan conversation as well as coordination If part of a larger integrated or multi channel campaign please welcome Nita Srikanth with influencer and Kai Dukes from Johnson C Smith University and Noa De Souza from UC Berkeley How we doing Everyone Darren's got wings on his shoes All right we're here to announce the nominees for best social media campaign starting with number one Bojangles The brand is one of the first major quick serve restaurants to sign endorsement deals with college athletes such as Sam Howell and Bo Nix Since July team Bojangles has partnered with over 50 student athletes in a variety of sports for social endorsements and personal appearances Next is Tia a financial firm is leveraging the intersection of International Women's Day the anniversary of title nine and the start of March madness in a campaign that shows young people why they need to start thinking about retirement Now the retire inequality campaign included women's basketball stars and focused on how gender inequality affects retirement prospects Next up is Mercedes Benz USA the EQS brand ambassador program Sick Car to get the word out about its new EQS electric vehicle Mercedes Benz engaged college athletes for a variety of promotional activities including meet and greets The deal is notable for taking a different approach than a traditional advertising or social media campaign The deal has featured athletes like UCLAS Mac May and Saint John's Jeff Smith Jeff Sims excuse me And then last but not least boost mobile boost mobile became the first mobile carrier to sponsor college athlete college athletes directly When it announced the signing of the Cavender Twins on July 1st 2021 60% of boost mobile branded posts were nl posts with college athletes accounting for 50% of the company's overall influencer program The winner of the best social media campaign goes to Mercedes Benz usa Wow this is awesome Thank you everyone So I work for Mercedes Benz I was very happy to have the nil opportunity I think it's great We look forward to doing more Um It's a great way we've found to authentically talk to the next generation of Mercedes Benz owners So thank you everyone And I'm really proud to be part of the inaugural nil awards I got excited for a second when Mercedes Benz just won that award I was waiting for her to be like you get a car you get a car you get a car That would be that would be sweet right Could drive out of here to Ben's um maybe another time Uh OK Our next award is the hustle Award which obviously everyone in this room knows what it means to hustle whether it's playing your sport or being active on social media like for the love of God Yeah social media is like a full time job these days Is it not Yeah it is So you really have to hustle if you want to grow your audience and grow your brand So this is what that award is somewhat gearing towards This award is presented by very appropriately So meta it recognizes the student athlete that while not a major statistic contributor to their team utilize an unrelenting determination combined with entrepreneurial savviness to excel in their name image and likeness endeavors on and off the field So for that let's welcome Nick Marquez from Meta and Isoa Wager from Kentucky State University So when we heard about this award we jumped at the chance to hand it out because when I think of hustle I think of everybody in this room and I think about the fact that Nil has helped level the playing field right You don't have to be at ad one school necessarily to build a business on a on a platform You don't have to be a starting quarterback necessarily to have you know a large following or to build your as a creator And so I think all of you kind of own a little bit of piece of this hustle award including a so but tonight we're going to celebrate the folks that are nominated including Angel Reese She's a former University of Maryland women's basketball player She signed over 10 nil deals including Tia A outback and mcdonald's We have Bree soccer ST John's Fisher College field hockey player She's partnered with many brands including Dunkin Donuts and Link Tree Got to give a shout out to Emily Cole who's built a business as a creator already We we feature a lot of your content on our on our uh examples She's a Duke's women's cross country and track and field athlete She's signed nil deals with H and R block family dollar B Elite and she has a cookbook coming out soon Ray Smith Norfolk State football player and track and field athlete He won 2022 H BC U male athlete of the year award He's the nickname the king of NIL He's partnered with over 70 brands including Post game Reebok Boost mobile and body armor John Seaton Elon University football player You all have probably seen this guy He has a personal clothing line called Big Boy Council He
